

Mahlzeit First German Restaurant in Yangon

If you look for a place to celebrate Oktoberfest in Myanmar or simply sample the authentic German cuisine then Mahlzeit should be considered as the first choice.

The story

Managed by Magnus Scherr, the restaurant is a great address to taste the famous pork knuckles dishes or familiar sausages as well many other well-known desserts from different regions of Germany.

The Chef developed his interest in cuisine at an early age and got rich experience over the last 20 years in the industry. He worked at many hotels and restaurants all over the Asia Pacific region and was a vital part of several openings

Food and service

Mahlzeit offers traditional food of every region and serves in addition a great choice of beers, organic juices, excellent coffee and tea.

One of their specialities is the German answer to Italian Pizza, called Flammkuchen.

The restaurant dining room can accommodate up to 70 seated guests. A special function hall is available and hosts 200 guests and is perfect to celebrate weddings, birthday parties, family- or company celebrations.

Our wide range of culinary choices, combined with our personalized and decent service, makes the Mahlzeit Function Hall an ideal place for any social event.

Restaurant opens from Monday to Sunday.

Opening time: 11.30am to 10.30pm

If you are wandering and want to pick up a cafe to stop, Mahlzeit cafe will be a very eye catching spot with some 300 different types of breads and a variety of more than 1200 pastries made in Germany. Bread is the basis of morning and evening meals.

We at Mahlzeit Café serve fresh baked German bread, Bavarian pretzels but also Bagels and Donuts from America or Croissants from France. From 8.00am in the morning until 10.00pm. Seven days a week.
